

The News Castle

NOVEMBER

1ST TERM PTM

“Where there is preparation, there is no fear”. On 8th November students appeared in their first term examination, they studied for it thoroughly and with full concentration.

SOWING SEEDS

“Sow a seed and the earth will yield you a flower”. On 11th November our students initiated to sow the seeds of different kinds and taking care of them, by watering them every day and watching them grow into a big tree of confidence and love planted by them.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

There are some things that we can't buy, one of such thing is childhood. Every child is different kind of flower, and all together, make this world a beautiful garden. The day was celebrated on 14th November with lots of love and soft feelings just like children have. Students came in fancy dress and did ramp walk and even danced in happiness on the beats of their favorite songs.

INTERSCHOOL POEM RECITATION

On 15th November our students participated in Interschool Poem Competition at Gyankriti School and recited their poems in a very rhythmic way and brought laurels to school.

DIFFERENT CREATIVITIES

On 21st November our students made different self projects on different topics and subjects and presented them in front of everyone very skillfully.

SCHOOL PICNIC

On 23rd November the students were taken to the most awaited place of the academic year, that is Picnic. The picnic was planned to the Indore Zoo, students explored themselves in nature and saw and learnt about new animal species also and were amazed to see the creatures flipping here and there and doing things out of their expectations.

INNOCENCE WITH RHYTHM

On 29th November our students of pre- primary participated in Interschool Poem Recitation Competition held at Gyankriti School. Our tiny toddlers recited the rhymes in a very innocent and rhythmic way which just went through all hearts among them and brought laurels to the school.

BIRTH OF A WARRIOR

On 20th November to mark the birth anniversary of a warrior, fighter Rani Laxmi Bai, our students presented an inspiring and motivational poetry on her and explained every aspect and efforts of her in her life.